LOCATION: 311 Washington Blvd., Marina Del Rey, Ca 90292

Join me, with KROQ at Baja Cantina from 2-6pm to hear such bands as The Maension (voted best Rock Band 2008 in Hollywood), Peachcake, Crash Cutie Crash, as well as, Angela Latham and her band. 100% of the proceeds will benefit LLS. At the end of this event, I will be having Tyler (pictured above) shave my head first, and then will be auctioning off the chance for others to shave my head as well. In addition there will be hairstylists on site so if you would like to join me in solidarity by shaving your head to honor those who are fighting cancer you can do so as well.

There will also be massage available for donation on site!

Help save lives by donating today.

Hope to see you there!
